

Valentine's Day – Glossary

fairy tale or fairy story noun [count]
a traditional children's story in which magic things happen

bonfire noun [count]
a large fire built outside for burning rubbish or for a celebration candy noun [count or uncount] AMERICAN

a sweet, or sweets

clay noun [uncount]
a type of heavy wet soil used for making cups, plates, and other objects custom noun [count or uncount] something that people do that is traditional or usual:

local customs and traditions

desert verb [transitive]
to leave a person or place and not come back

dot noun [count]
a very small spot of ink or colour

eligible adjective
considered to be a good marriage partner

engaged adjective
if two people are engaged, they have formally agreed to get married:
We got engaged about this time last year.

insult verb [transitive]
to say or do something that is offensive:
She has no right to insult us like that.

insulting adjective

pillow noun [count]
a soft object on which you rest your head in bed

relationship noun [count]
a situation in which two people are sexual or romantic partners:
I was already in a relationship when I met Ben.

singles [plural]
people who are not married, or who are not in a romantic relationship